Personal Web Space

Share a piece of your world with the world! Gorge Network's customers have a chance to develop an important skill while sharing a bit of themselves. The Internet is a two-way medium and developing your own website makes you a part of the Net. Share the photos of your grandkids, your latest projects or your vacation. Make your political feelings known or share that latest bit of poetry you've written. Creating web pages is the publishing medium of the new century!
